

Beyond Enkription Character Analysis

Where possible, details of the real life identities of the main characters in Beyond Enkription have been disclosed in an article entitled The Burlington Files Characters. In real life most of those identified worked in British Intelligence or the CIA in the seventies. Also, in real life the fictional accountancy firm Porter Williams was Coopers & Lybrand.

CHARACTER	REAL LIFE IDENTITY ON WHO THE CHARACTER WAS BASED
Alan McKenzie	Colonel Alan Brooke Pemberton CVO MBE, ex-army, ex-MI5/MI6
Alice Bailey	Classified other than an enduring friend of the Fairclough family
Chad Cooper	Barrie Northend Parkes BEM, ex-RAF, ex-MI5/MI6
Christopher Albury	An unidentified partner in Coopers & Lybrand, Bahamas
Collette Fanshaw	The wife of the head of MI6 in the Bahamas in 1974
Douglas Castle	An unidentified Oxford University professor who worked in MI6
Edward Burlington	John William (Bill) Percy Fairclough FCA MSCI MCT
Frederick Burlington	Frederick Fairclough, Bill Fairclough's grandfather, ex-army
George Francis	An unidentified British Intelligence operative from North West England
George Simpson	Classified other than worked in British Intelligence
Graham Sidney-Smith	An unidentified partner in Coopers & Lybrand, Bahamas
Hugh Burlington	Peter Fairclough, Bill Fairclough's brother
Jasmine (Jazz) Moreau	An unidentified CIA madame or hooker of Caribbean descent
Jock McGrath	Classified other than having worked in MI5 and the SAS
Leo Sanchez	An unidentified CIA lawyer of Cuban descent based in Washington DC
Marco Sanchez	Head of the CIA and renowned entrepreneur in the Bahamas
Mark Burlington	John Van de Weg, a Bermudan law enforcement officer
Peter Stafford	An unidentified senior partner in Coopers & Lybrand, London, ex-MI6
Raj Gupta Khan	A double agent (MI6/Pakistani ISI) based in Coopers & Lybrand, London
Roger Burlington	Dr Richard Fairclough, Bill Fairclough's father, MI1 (British Intelligence)
Rupert Fanshaw	The head of MI6 in the Bahamas in 1974
Sara Burlington	Margaret Fairclough, Bill Fairclough's mother
Suzie Laurent	An unidentified night club manageress and croupier
Tessa Hislop	An unidentified British Intelligence operative, ex Metropolitan Police
Toby Dias	An antique dealer and best man at Bill Fairclough's first wedding
Vivienne Templeton	An unidentified CIA operative and air hostess in the Caribbean